

EXPLORING MY FASCINATING WILDLIFE

There's a Manatee in my bathtub, she
seems to enjoy it there.

But she leaves a big manatee bath-ring, and the soap I can't find anywhere!

There's a Bison in my bed, he
seems to enjoy it there.

But he steals all the blankets, and
his hair gets everywhere!

There's Meerkats on the bookshelf, they seem to enjoy it there.

But they keep reading my favourite novels,
and their footprints are far and near!

There are Sea Lions in the swimming pool,
they seem to enjoy it there.

But they are stealing all the pool toys, and splashing like they don't care!

There's a Gerbil in my sock draw, he
seems to enjoy it there.

But he's gnawing little holes, and I can't seem to find a pair!

There's a Bear Cub in my wardrobe, he
seems to enjoy it there.

But there are claw marks in my outfits, and I can't find anything to wear!

There's a Rhino in my driveway he
seems to enjoy it there.

But we can't get the car out, it seems like we're stuck here!

There's a Pussycat on my sofa, she
seems to enjoy it there.

She snuggles and purrs all day, and I like her the best I swear!
